Commentary

IXP opens at 7057; 15 points below previous close. As expected and mentioned in the previous report, the resistance at 7060 couldn't be broken and the index fell back to the support level at 7026 whom was broken as well. Two stocks; Reem and Humansoft pushed the index further down to break the support level at 6980 and reaching the lowest point at 6973 which then the index started picking up and closed at 7007; 35 points below previous close. liquidity ratio at the end of the day shows 48% buy and 52% sell. The market is still unstable between 6980 and 7060, and needs higher liquidity to reach 7100.
