Commentary

IXP opens at 6929; 10 points above previous close. Expected resistance at 6934 and 6960, support at 6885. The price index broke the support level and reached the lowest point at 6852 which then bounced and closed at 6884; 35 points below previous close. Liquidity ratio during the day was showing 70% buy and 30% sell but at the end of the day it showed 49% buy and 51% sell due to uncertainty and fear for further reduction. The market is still under selling pressure specially in Real Estate sector. Breaking 6885 might push the index further down to reach 6772.
