KSE Price Index Movement

Commentary

IXP opens at 6820; 7 points above previous close. Expected resistance at 6850, and 6885, support at 6810 and 6763. The market started with a buying wave reaching 6859 but couldn't hold on to this level due to the weak trades and the selling pressure. The index reached the lowest point at 6812 and then closed at 6819; 5 points above previous close. liquidity ratio during the first hour was showing +70% buying but at the end of the day it showed 45% buy 55% sell. Today might have closed positively but the index needs to stay above 6810 for few consecutive sessions. Next resistance is 6850, and support is 6810. Break the resistance will lead take us to 6885 and 6934. The value traded is very weak compared to the previous days.
