Commentary

IXP opens at 6829; 10 points above previous close. Expected resistance at 6850, and 6885, support at 6810 and 6763. The market is volatile moving in the range of 30 points. The index reached the lowest point touching the support level at 6810 and reached the highest at 6842 then closed at 6831; 12 points above previous close. liquidity ratio at the end of the day showed 49% buy 51% sell. The market is still unpredictable and moves in a horizontal trend between the support and the resistance. We need stronger and higher trades to be able to break the resistance. The Next resistance is 6850, and support is 6810. Break the resistance might lead us to 6885 and 6934. Q1 results is the next factor that moves the market.
