Commentary

IXP opens at 6839; 2 point above previous close. Expected resistance at 6845 → 6868 and support at 6822 → 6804. The index reached the lowest at 6810 and the highest at 6843, and closed at 6829; 8 points below previous close. Liquidity ratio at the end of the day shows 59% buy and 41% sell. Buying pressure continues on selective blue chips such as KFH 70%, NIND 92%, NBK 61%. Increased value and volume with buying more than selling is a positive indicator. The buy and sell in the short run will continue as long the index is below 6868.
